

REVIVITIES

Know and Some Now About Our County & People

Prince of Pickens, to relatives in At-the 20th instant, to John Youngblood,

R. 5, a son.

Mrs. J. C. Alexanders visited the latin Atlanta this week.

Old Soldiers reunion, stirring music by an band will greet every

Lewis, of Greenville, ing a while with his Mrs. J. J. Lewis, in

Earle Lewis, of Easley, portion of last week in with his mother Mrs. J.

teachers of the Pickens school have all gone to respective homes to spend Julius E. Boggs, Jr., who is adding school in Charleston, ending his vacation at his

Col. Alfred Taylor, of Taystation, visited at the home his son, Capt. J. T. Taylor, Pickens, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith d Mrs. Allen, of Liberty, visitat the home of W. T. Griffin Pickens, last week.

A cordial invitation is extended to everybody, and especially to Old Soldiers and their amilies, to come to Pickens on

Mr. Curtis Martin and Misses Ora and Jessie Robertson of Greenville, were visitors at the home of T. R. Allen, in Pick-

Mr. George W. Corbin has so far recovered from his recent spell of fever as to be able to be out on the streets, to the delight

The houseflies are here in great force. They too are purveyors of disease, it is said.
Kill them out with any and Quite a number of people attended the Horse Show in Greenville last week. Among those from our city were Mr. and Mrs.

Western hay and western corn and oats, all bought on credit at time prices, will never do to try to make a cotton crop

Don't fail to read what Freeman & Co. have to say this week.
They are overstocked on men's summer shoes and have cut the See change in the advertisement of Bolt & Co. this week.

They tell you about their drug and prescription work. This en-

On Sunday, May 30th, the Pickens Railroad changes its schedule. Train No. 5 will leave at 3:20, p. m., instead of 4

Mr. R. E. Dalton has sold his farm of 40½ acres to his brother, C. E. Dalton and purchased the W. B. Wilson place

Remember June 3d. It is Old
Soldier's day.

Spring oats, as a general thing are short and sweet this season.

There will be a grand total eclipse of the moon on the night of June 23rd.

Dr. A. C. Spain, Dentist,
will be in Central on Tuesday June 1st for a few days.

Miss Cassie Bolt, of Pickens, is spending a while in Greenville with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Mc-

Master Robert Bowen, of Greenville, is on a visit to his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.
A. Bowen in Pickens.

Let every man and his wife or his sweetheart come to Pickens on Thursday, June 3rd next. This will be Old Sol-

Mrs. W. T. Griffin, of Pickens, mention of whose sickness was made in these columns last week, is very much improved at

Recent rains have given the farmers a little respite from their work and they are taking advantage of this opportunity

Miss Irene Clark, a most lovely, charming and popular young lady, of Elberton Ga., who is teaching a music class at

Several communications
have been received this week, which we are sorry cannot appear; especially those from M.

J. R. Ashmore and B. B.
LaBoon are in Charleston this week as delegates from the Pickens Lodge in attendance

In the spring the system needs cleansing and the best method of doing this is to use a blood remedy. The Pickens

WANTED—White girls to learn a good business and earn $350.00 to $500.00 yearly. The work is easy, factory is well ven-

The second quarterly conference for Pickens station will be held at the Methodist Church here next Saturday and Sun-

The many friends over the State will learn with interest that Miss Mary T. Nance, the erstwhile President of the State

Miss Olive Newton the accomplished daughter of our fellow-townsmen, Judge Joseph
H. Newton, received a letter

Remember June 3d. It is Old
Soldier's day.

Spring oats, as a general
thing are short and sweet this
season.

There will be a grand total eclipse of the moon on the night of June 23rd.

Dr. A. C. Spain, Dentist,
will be in Central on Tuesday
June 1st for a few days.

Miss Cassie Bolt, of Pickens,
is spending a while in Greenville
with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Mc-

Master Robert Bowen, of
Greenville, is on a visit to his
grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.
A. Bowen in Pickens.

Let every man and his
wife or his sweetheart come
to Pickens on Thursday, June
3rd next. This will be Old Sol-

Mrs. W. T. Griffin, of Pick-
ens, mention of whose sickness
was made in these columns last
week, is very much improved at

Recent rains have given the
farmers a little respite from
their work and they are taking advantage of this opportunity

Miss Irene Clark, a most
lovely, charming and popular
young lady, of Elberton Ga.,
who is teaching a music class at

Several communications
have been received this week,
which we are sorry cannot ap-
pear; especially those from M.

J. R. Ashmore and B. B.
LaBoon are in Charleston this
week as delegates from the
Pickens Lodge in attendance

In the spring the system
needs cleansing and the best
method of doing this is to use
a blood remedy. The Pickens

WANTED—White girls to
learn a good business and earn $350.00 to $500.00 yearly. The work is easy, factory is well ven-

The second quarterly conference for Pickens station will
be held at the Methodist Church
here next Saturday and Sun-

The many friends over the State will learn with interest
that Miss Mary T. Nance, the
erstwhile President of the State

Miss Olive Newton the accomplished daughter of our fellow-townsmen, Judge Joseph
H. Newton, received a letter

Remember June 3d. It is Old
Soldier's day.

Spring oats, as a general
thing are short and sweet this
season.

There will be a grand total eclipse of the moon on the night of June 23rd.

Dr. A. C. Spain, Dentist,
will be in Central on Tuesday
June 1st for a few days.

Miss Cassie Bolt, of Pickens,
is spending a while in Greenville
with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Mc-

Master Robert Bowen, of
Greenville, is on a visit to his
grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.
A. Bowen in Pickens.

Let every man and his
wife or his sweetheart come
to Pickens on Thursday, June
3rd next. This will be Old Sol-

Mrs. W. T. Griffin, of Pick-
ens, mention of whose sickness
was made in these columns last
week, is very much improved at

Recent rains have given the
farmers a little respite from
their work and they are taking advantage of this opportunity

Miss Irene Clark, a most
lovely, charming and popular
young lady, of Elberton Ga.,
who is teaching a music class at

Several communications
have been received this week,
which we are sorry cannot ap-
pear; especially those from M.

J. R. Ashmore and B. B.
LaBoon are in Charleston this
week as delegates from the
Pickens Lodge in attendance

In the spring the system
needs cleansing and the best
method of doing this is to use
a blood remedy. The Pickens

WANTED—White girls to
learn a good business and earn $350.00 to $500.00 yearly. The work is easy, factory is well ven-

The second quarterly conference for Pickens station will
be held at the Methodist Church
here next Saturday and Sun-

The many friends over the State will learn with interest
that Miss Mary T. Nance, the
erstwhile President of the State

Miss Olive Newton the accomplished daughter of our fellow-townsmen, Judge Joseph
H. Newton, received a letter

Remember June 3d. It is Old
Soldier's day.

Spring oats, as a general
thing are short and sweet this
season.

There will be a grand total eclipse of the moon on the night of June 23rd.

Dr. A. C. Spain, Dentist,
will be in Central on Tuesday
June 1st for a few days.

Miss Cassie Bolt, of Pickens,
is spending a while in Greenville
with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Mc-

Master Robert Bowen, of
Greenville, is on a visit to his
grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.
A. Bowen in Pickens.

Let every man and his
wife or his sweetheart come
to Pickens on Thursday, June
3rd next. This will be Old Sol-

Remember June 3d. It is Old
Soldier's day.

Spring oats, as a general
thing are short and sweet this
season.

There will be a grand total eclipse of the moon on the night of June 23rd.

Dr. A. C. Spain, Dentist,
will be in Central on Tuesday
June 1st for a few days.

Miss Cassie Bolt, of Pickens,
is spending a while in Greenville
with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Mc-

Master Robert Bowen, of
Greenville, is on a visit to his
grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.
A. Bowen in Pickens.

Let every man and his
wife or his sweetheart come
to Pickens on Thursday, June
3rd next. This will be Old Sol-

Mrs. W. T. Griffin, of Pick-
ens, mention of whose sickness
was made in these columns last
week, is very much improved at

Recent rains have given the
farmers a little respite from
their work and they are taking advantage of this opportunity

Miss Irene Clark, a most
lovely, charming and popular
young lady, of Elberton Ga.,
who is teaching a music class at

Several communications
have been received this week,
which we are sorry cannot ap-
pear; especially those from M.

J. R. Ashmore and B. B.
LaBoon are in Charleston this
week as delegates from the
Pickens Lodge in attendance

In the spring the system
needs cleansing and the best
method of doing this is to use
a blood remedy. The Pickens

WANTED—White girls to
learn a good business and earn $350.00 to $500.00 yearly. The work is easy, factory is well ven-

The second quarterly conference for Pickens station will
be held at the Methodist Church
here next Saturday and Sun-

The many friends over the State will learn with interest
that Miss Mary T. Nance, the
erstwhile President of the State

Miss Olive Newton the accomplished daughter of our fellow-townsmen, Judge Joseph
H. Newton, received a letter

Remember June 3d. It is Old
Soldier's day.

Spring oats, as a general
thing are short and sweet this
season.

There will be a grand to-total eclipse of the moon on the night of June 23rd.

Dr. A. C. Spain, Dentist,
will be in Central on Tuesday
June 1st for a few days.

Miss Cassie Bolt, of Pickens,
is spending a while in Greenville
with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Mc-

Master Robert Bowen, of
Greenville, is on a visit to his
grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.
A. Bowen in Pickens.

Let every man and his
wife or his sweetheart come
to Pickens on Thursday, June
3rd next. This will be Old Sol-

Mrs. W. T. Griffin, of Pick-
ens, mention of whose sickness
was made in these columns last
week, is very much improved at

Recent rains have given the
farmers a little respite from
their work and they are taking advantage of this opportunity

Miss Irene Clark, a most
lovely, charming and popular
young lady, of Elberton Ga.,
who is teaching a music class at

Several communications
have been received this week,
which we are sorry cannot ap-
pear; especially those from M.

J. R. Ashmore and B. B.
LaBoon are in Charleston this
week as delegates from the
Pickens Lodge in attendance

In the spring the system
needs cleansing and the best
method of doing this is to use
a blood remedy. The Pickens

WANTED—White girls to
learn a good business and earn $350.00 to $500.00 yearly. The work is easy, factory is well ven-

The second quarterly conference for Pickens station will
be held at the Methodist Church
here next Saturday and Sun-

The many friends over the State will learn with interest
that Miss Mary T. Nance, the
erstwhile President of the State

Miss Olive Newton the accomplished daughter of our fellow-townsmen, Judge Joseph
H. Newton, received a letter

Remember June 3d. It is Old
Soldier's day.

Spring oats, as a general
thing are short and sweet this
season.

There will be a grand to-
total eclipse of the moon on the night of June 23rd.

Dr. A. C. Spain, Dentist,
will be in Central on Tuesday
June 1st for a few days.

Miss Cassie Bolt, of Pickens,
is spending a while in Greenville
with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Mc-

Master Robert Bowen, of
Greenville, is on a visit to his
grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.
A. Bowen in Pickens.

Let every man and his
wife or his sweetheart come
to Pickens on Thursday, June
3rd next. This will be Old Sol-

Remember June 3d. It is Old
Soldier's day.

Spring oats, as a general
thing are short and sweet this
season.

There will be a grand to-
total eclipse of the moon on the night of June 23rd.

Dr. A. C. Spain, Dentist,
will be in Central on Tuesday
June 1st for a few days.

Miss Cassie Bolt, of Pickens,
is spending a while in Greenville
with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Mc-

Master Robert Bowen, of
Greenville, is on a visit to his
grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.
A. Bowen in Pickens.

Let every man and his
wife or his sweetheart come
to Pickens on Thursday, June
3rd next. This will be Old Sol-

Mrs. W. T. Griffin, of Pick-
ens, mention of whose sickness
was made in these columns last
week, is very much improved at

Recent rains have given the
farmers a little respite from
their work and they are taking advantage of this opportunity

Miss Irene Clark, a most
lovely, charming and popular
young lady, of Elberton Ga.,
who is teaching a music class at

Several communications
have been received this week,
which we are sorry cannot ap-
pear; especially those from M.

J. R. Ashmore and B. B.
LaBoon are in Charleston this
week as delegates from the
Pickens Lodge in attendance

In the spring the system
needs cleansing and the best
method of doing this is to use
a blood remedy. The Pickens

WANTED—White girls to
learn a good business and earn $350.00 to $500.00 yearly. The work is easy, factory is well ven-

The second quarterly conference for Pickens station will
be held at the Methodist Church
here next Saturday and Sun-

The many friends over the State will learn with interest
that Miss Mary T. Nance, the
erstwhile President of the State

Miss Olive Newton the accomplished daughter of our fellow-townsmen, Judge Joseph
H. Newton, received a letter

Remember June 3d. It is Old
Soldier's day.

Spring oats, as a general
thing are short and sweet this
season.

There will be a grand to-
total eclipse of the moon on the night of June 23rd.

Dr. A. C. Spain, Dentist,
will be in Central on Tuesday
June 1st for a few days.

Miss Cassie Bolt, of Pickens,
is spending a while in Greenville
with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Mc-

Master Robert Bowen, of
Greenville, is on a visit to his
grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.
A. Bowen in Pickens.

Let every man and his
wife or his sweetheart come
to Pickens on Thursday, June
3rd next. This will be Old Sol-

Mrs. W. T. Griffin, of Pick-
ens, mention of whose sickness
was made in these columns last
week, is very much improved at

Recent rains have given the
farmers a little respite from
their work and they are taking advantage of this opportunity

Miss Irene Clark, a most
lovely, charming and popular
young lady, of Elberton Ga.,
who is teaching a music class at

Several communications
have been received this week,
which we are sorry cannot ap-
pear; especially those from M.

J. R. Ashmore and B. B.
LaBoon are in Charleston this
week as delegates from the
Pickens Lodge in attendance

In the spring the system
needs cleansing and the best
method of doing this is to use
a blood remedy. The Pickens

WANTED—White girls to
learn a good business and earn $350.00 to $500.00 yearly. The work is easy, factory is well ven-

The second quarterly conference for Pickens station will
be held at the Methodist Church
here next Saturday and Sun-

The many friends over the State will learn with interest
that Miss Mary T. Nance, the
erstwhile President of the State

Miss Olive Newton the accomplished daughter of our fellow-townsmen, Judge Joseph
H. Newton, received a letter

Remember June 3d. It is Old
Soldier's day.

Spring oats, as a general
thing are short and sweet this
season.

There will be a grand to-
total eclipse of the moon on the night of June 23rd.

Dr. A. C. Spain, Dentist,
will be in Central on Tuesday
June 1st for a few days.

Miss Cassie Bolt, of Pickens,
is spending a while in Greenville
with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Mc-

Master Robert Bowen, of
Greenville, is on a visit to his
grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.
A. Bowen in Pickens.

Let every man and his
wife or his sweetheart come
to Pickens on Thursday, June
3rd next. This will be Old Sol-

Remember June 3d. It is Old
Soldier's day.

Spring oats, as a general
thing are short and sweet this
season.

There will be a grand to-
total eclipse of the moon on the night of June 23rd.

Dr. A. C. Spain, Dentist,
will be in Central on Tuesday
June 1st for a few days.

Miss Cassie Bolt, of Pickens,
is spending a while in Greenville
with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Mc-

Master Robert Bowen, of
Greenville, is on a visit to his
grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.
A. Bowen in Pickens.

Let every man and his
wife or his sweetheart come
to Pickens on Thursday, June
3rd next. This will be Old Sol-

Mrs. W. T. Griffin, of Pick-
ens, mention of whose sickness
was made in these columns last
week, is very much improved at

Recent rains have given the
farmers a little respite from
their work and they are taking advantage of this opportunity

Miss Irene Clark, a most
lovely, charming and popular
young lady, of Elberton Ga.,
who is teaching a music class at

Several communications
have been received this week,
which we are sorry cannot ap-
pear; especially those from M.

J. R. Ashmore and B. B.
LaBoon are in Charleston this
week as delegates from the
Pickens Lodge in attendance

In the spring the system
needs cleansing and the best
method of doing this is to use
a blood remedy. The Pickens

WANTED—White girls to
learn a good business and earn $350.00 to $500.00 yearly. The work is easy, factory is well ven-

The second quarterly conference for Pickens station will
be held at the Methodist Church
here next Saturday and Sun-

The many friends over the State will learn with interest
that Miss Mary T. Nance, the
erstwhile President of the State

Miss Olive Newton the accomplished daughter of our fellow-townsmen, Judge Joseph
H. Newton, received a letter

Remember June 3d. It is Old
Soldier's day.

Spring oats, as a general
thing are short and sweet this
season.

There will be a grand to-
total eclipse of the moon on the night of June 23rd.

Dr. A. C. Spain, Dentist,
will be in Central on Tuesday
June 1st for a few days.

Miss Cassie Bolt, of Pickens,
is spending a while in Greenville
with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Mc-

Master Robert Bowen, of
Greenville, is on a visit to his
grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.
A. Bowen in Pickens.

Let every man and his
wife or his sweetheart come
to Pickens on Thursday, June
3rd next. This will be Old Sol-

Mrs